

Kellie Adams

Director of Social Marketing

After working for her father, Brien, for 8 years in high school and college, we are thrilled to announce that Kellie has returned to work part-time for Traditions Wealth Advisors. Kellie is in charge of social marketing. Kellie is the oldest of the Smith children. She taught middle school science for 12 years in Richardson. In her classroom, Kellie used social media to connect with students, parents, and peer educators around the world. She is also familiar with updating the TWA website as it the same platform as her class website. Kellie resides in McKinney, TX with Chris, her husband of 3 years, and Jack, their 7 month old son. Kellie is a proud member of the Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2007, Chris is class of 2003, and Jack will be class of 2041, whoop! Follow Kellie's TWA updates on social media by liking us on Facebook and following us on Twitter.
